Following up on our call today, I haven't yet had a chance to discuss these scenarios with Renee, Valerie, Pete et al, so will need to confirm things with them re best advice -- I'm particularly concerned with scheduling a primary in April and a runoff in June with less than 81 days in between considering the State ECode 10400 requires candidate names be given to the County by E-81. Not sure how comfortable the office will be dates that do not comply with that section. If that does become a harder issue, what's the possibility of holding the primary on March 11 (i.e., more than 81 days before the June runoff)? I understand that this may require opening the DOI earlier and less than 30 days after the Board acts to call the election.

So here are 3 potential dates:

1. March 11 Primary to meet E-81 requirement for the June 3 runoff. Note shortened residency period and possible OSB prep period (may result in OSBs mailed E-29 for english and E-21 for other languages).
2. April 1 Primary and June 3 runoff. (Does not meet E-81 requirement).
3. June 3 Primary and Aug 19 runoff (gives 30 days residency AFTER Council adoption - since there's time). If we wanted to meet the E-81 deadline, the runoff would be August 26.

Cost to follow by noon tomorrow.

Thanks Jinny. A few comments/edits:

1. I think the Residency Start column needs to be corrected, because that date is 31 days back from the Open of the DOI (not the day after the Board Calls the Election). So for each of the 3 options, I think the residency start date is 12/8/13, 12/22/13 and 1/7/14.
2. For option 1, we should consider listing the option of the Council Adoption date being 12/18/13 (even though that is not ideal, we're just balancing different risks).
3. For option 3 (the safest option), can you shift back the Open DOI period by at least one day so that the Residency Start period is 1/8/14 instead of 1/7/14?
4. For option 3, we don't need to worry about the E-81 deadline because that only applies to getting names to the County for the Registrar to run an election, it doesn't apply to getting names to the City Clerk for the runoff.
5. For option 3, any way to make the runoff even earlier by even a week or two? We usually have about 75 days between our primary and runoff for general elections, and this +77 period is longer than even that, any way we can shorten? I'm guessing that may be helpful toward persuading people that the office will not be vacant for that much longer under this option.
6. Just for clarify, can you change the second column heading to "LAUSD CALLS ELECTION"

Thanks.

WE NEED THE TIME FRAME SINCE IT MAY TAKE THE COUNTY 28 DAYS TO CERTIFY THEIR ELECTION. WE'LL TAKE IT BACK TO E-70 SO THAT WE'LL BE DONE BY THE END OF AUGUST.
6. Just for clarify, can you change the second column heading to "LAUSD CALLS ELECTION" WILL DO.

Thanks.
